Dear Mr. Quigley:

I have read your letter to me of December 7, 1993, and wish to note only the following. It is unfortunate that, prior to writing your letter and sending numerous copies to various public officials and organizations, you failed to observe that I am one of the three or four members of the Judicial Council who, contrary to the majority of the Judicial Council, voted at its November 30, 1993, meeting against the bail schedule modification that you also opposed. I agreed with your position that any change should come from the Legislature and not from the Judicial Council.

Yours truly,

Ronald M. George

Dear Messrs. Quigley and Bianco:

Thank you for your letter of December 7, 1993 regarding the Judicial Council's recent action concerning California's helmet law. I understand the sentiments in your letter but wish to point out that I was one of, I believe, three Judicial Council members who voted against making violation of Vehicle Code 27803 a noncorrectible equipment violation.

Very truly yours,
